

09-04-25 COMMUNITY STAKEHOLDER MEETING

On January 1, 2026, Sonoma County is expanding its services to help people with severe substance use needs access more treatment, resources, and housing.

Governor Newsom signed Senate Bill 43 making significant changes to the state's involuntary detention and conservatorship laws under the Lanterman-Petris-Short (LPS) Act. Join us on September 4, 2025, at 1:00 PM as we discuss the changes in law and the impact on our community.

To attend, please register at:

- Senate Bill 43 Local Implementation: Community Stakeholder Meeting

We look forward to seeing you on September 4, 2025 at 1:00 PM.

IMPACT

People with a mental health disorder or severe substance use disorder will be eligible to access more services. The change in law also means more people may be subject to involuntary detention and conservatorship laws.

LAW

View the law here:

INFORMATION

Learn more about Senate Bill 43 here:

